Continent's bigger air cargo trade fair to attract thousands of visitors; recognise excellence in African air freight

The fifth biennial Air Cargo Africa conference and exhibition, Africa's biggest niche air cargo trade fair, gets underway in Johannesburg in February under the management of international exhibitions giant Messe München.

Messe München purchased the Air Cargo India and Air Cargo Africa exhibitions from the Indian publishing house Stat Trade Times last year, and aims to upgrade and expand the events as part of the exhibition firm's global portfolio of industrial, transport and logistics, and supply chain events.

Air Cargo Africa attracted over 80 exhibitors and 2,100 visitors from across the continent in 2017, and this year is set to deliver even broader reach and impact.

Air Cargo Africa 2019, to be staged at Emperors Palace in Johannesburg from 19 to 21 February, will include a number of networking opportunities, an international exhibition, a theme dinner and an awards evening.

The three-day Air Cargo Africa conference will feature several niche air shippers' forums, while industry experts will unpack topical themes including 'Liberalisation and Modernisation', 'Air cargo in a digital era', 'Trade barriers and populist agendas', 'China's belt and road initiative and investments in Africa', and the future of unmanned vehicles in the air cargo industry. International speakers will include Glyn Hughes, Global Head of Cargo at IATA; Steven Polmans, Head of Cargo and Logistics at Brussels Airport Company; Peter Gerber, CEO of Lufthansa Cargo AG; Omar Talal Hariri, CEO of Saudi Cargo; Turhan Ozen, Chief Cargo Officer at Turkish Airlines; Guillaume Halleux, Chief Cargo Officer at Qatar Airlines; Tewolde Gebremariam, Group CEO at Ethiopian Airlines; and Jan de Vegt, COO at Kenya Airways.
