

2020 Eco-Logic Awards finalists announced

The finalists in the 2020 Eco-Logic Awards hosted by the Enviropaedia across 12 categories have been announced. The virtual awards ceremony will take place on 21 September - World Peace Day. Initially set to take place 5 June, the event was delayed due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The awards highlights the eco-logically beneficial products, services and people who are taking effective action to protect and preserve the environment. “We will not let Covid-19 prevent us from celebrating and promoting our Eco-Champions. It’s now more important than ever to share good news, empower people and communities, and support green business,” says David Parry-Davies, director of Enviropaedia and The Eco-Logic Awards.
