

SABC TV commissioning

One production house is responsible for two sitcoms and some drama on SABC TV. Is it because there are not enough production houses to do the work or is this one particularly above the rest?

How does the SABC commission for new programmes? What does the association of producers have to say about this. There must be enough producers out there to ensure diversity on our screens.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>