About the Binance Webinar, 'The Future of Money'

The cryptocurrency market offers users a unique opportunity, as you can trade 24/7 and for as little as R100 to get involved. However, crypto trading can seem intimidating to some - and with so many sources of knowledge people don't know where to turn. Furthermore, the pressures of Covid-19 on the economy mean now more than ever, people need alternative sources of income.

That is why Binance has combed the country to bring you some of the most knowledgeable people in the SA crypto space.
