

Steers celebrates #600Flames at Gauteng's firefighters' training ground

Steers marked the opening of its 600th store with a special event at the Fireman's Tavern in Johannesburg. Members of the media and social influencers like ThickLeeyonce, Lindo Sithole, Nadia Herbst and Katlego Ncala all joined in on the festivities.

Social media phenom Thickleeyonce on arrival

Steers Marketing Exec Adolf Fourie welcomes guests

The #600 Flames fire celebration ignites

The #600 Flames fire ignitor gets going

The #600 Flames VIP area and public spectators

The #600 Flames wooden structure about to be lit

Two Dads and a Kid bloggers bring the family flavour

#600Flames in full swing

#600Flames welcome committee

Celebrating 600 flame-grilled restaurants

James Pilkington and DJ Rikay on arrival

A "burn-out" of a wooden structure was the focal point of the evening at the Gauteng's firefighters' training ground in Modderfontein.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>