

South Coast Bike Fest set for April 2019

South Africa's biggest motorcycle and music festival will return to the shores of Margate on the KwaZulu-Natal South Coast, where extreme action, food and musical entertainment will converge in a weekend of family fun in April 2019.

Image supplied by South Coast Bike Fest

The South Coast Bike Fest, presented by Ugu South Coast Tourism with endorsement and support from Ray Nkonyeni Municipality; Ugu District, the Department of Economic Development, Tourism and Environmental Affairs; and Tourism KwaZulu-Natal, will run from 26-28 April 2019.

UGU South Coast Tourism CEO, Phelisa Mangcu, said that even those with little knowledge of motorbiking would find the South Coast Bike Fest an entertaining experience that was well worth a visit.

For more, go to www.southcoastbikefest.co.za

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>