Streaming giant Netflix has released South African viewing habits for the year, along with the most popular South African content on the platform.

2020 is the year of the screen. With our usual plans of outdoor adventure and bar crawling upended by Covid-19, digital media has become our new champion of escapism, and we have the data to show for it.

Unsurprisingly, our Netflix-viewing habits have more than doubled compared to 2019.
