

SA's failure to protect whistle-blowers apparent in Williams' exodus

By Unite 4 Mzansi secretariat, issued by SAICA

15 Nov 2021

Unite 4 Mzansi™ notes with sadness the news of Athol Williams' recent departure from South Africa. Williams is a celebrated social and ethics philosopher, corruption whistle-blower and Unite 4 Mzansi™ advocate. Williams' departure comes after he received a host of warnings from his associates about what could happen to him for speaking out and giving evidence at the Zondo Commission in August.

One of the biggest obstacles standing in the country's way of moving forward to achieve the NDP and the UN SDGs is the issue of corruption. South Africa's impervious culture of impunity since the mid-2000s has led to state institutions of accountability faltering and corruption undermining our democracy and destroying our economy.

Williams' departure is an inditement against South Africa's ability to protect whistle-blowers and we believe that until society takes action to protect those who stand against corruption, the country's efforts to fight fraud and corruption will continue to be undermined.

It is for this reason that Unite 4 Mzansi™ is working on a variety of projects to mobilise civil society to work together to see what can be done to prevent corruption in both the private and public sector as well as an initiative that seeks to educate society around key lessons that could be learnt from state capture and the reported corruption incidences in South Africa through a series of videos which are available to the public.

The next Unite 4 Mzansi™ cast study video, which looks at the Transnet Case Study, will be released on International Anti-Corruption Day on 9 December 2021 and will be available on the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants' YouTube channel.

- Directors' role as the cornerstone of the governance ecosystem 25 Apr 2024
- 2-pot system: Key considerations before you withdraw your retirement savings 27 Mar 2024
- Saica launches business podcast to empower small businesses 19 Mar 2024
- Accountancy and loss adjusting 15 Mar 2024
- Making the auditing profession attractive to Gen Z 8 Mar 2024

SAICA

SAICA is the professional home of #DifferenceMakers - A community of passionate accountants who are leaders in business, government, and the communities they serve. CA(SA); AGA(SA) and AT(SA).

Profile | News | Contact | Twitter | Facebook | RSS Feed

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>