MamaMagic New Product Awards is the spotlight that shines on new products that enter the South African baby and parenting arena through the MamaMagic, The Baby Expo each year. It also narrows the gap in transparency between brands and their consumers, allowing for direct and honest feedback and interaction with the products.

Every year exhibitors from MamaMagic, The Baby Expo are encouraged to enter their new products that were launched in the past 12 months to be judged by parents and experts alike. Through a thorough judging process at each city they entered their products in, the finalists are re-judged in the final round of judging ahead of the reveal. The categories include Baby Essentials, Mom's Essentials, Play, Safety, Travel, Feeding, Nursery Products, Local is Lekker, Green and Parent's Choice.

The 2016 MamaMagic New Product Award winners all scored 75% and above in each of their categories and the Overall MamaMagic New Product Award Winner scored the highest out of all the categories.

The MamaMagic New Product Awards have become one of the most exciting and sought-after titles at the expos, as they give an opportunity not only to shine the spotlight on the brands' new products but have experts and parents judge them.
