12 Mar 2019

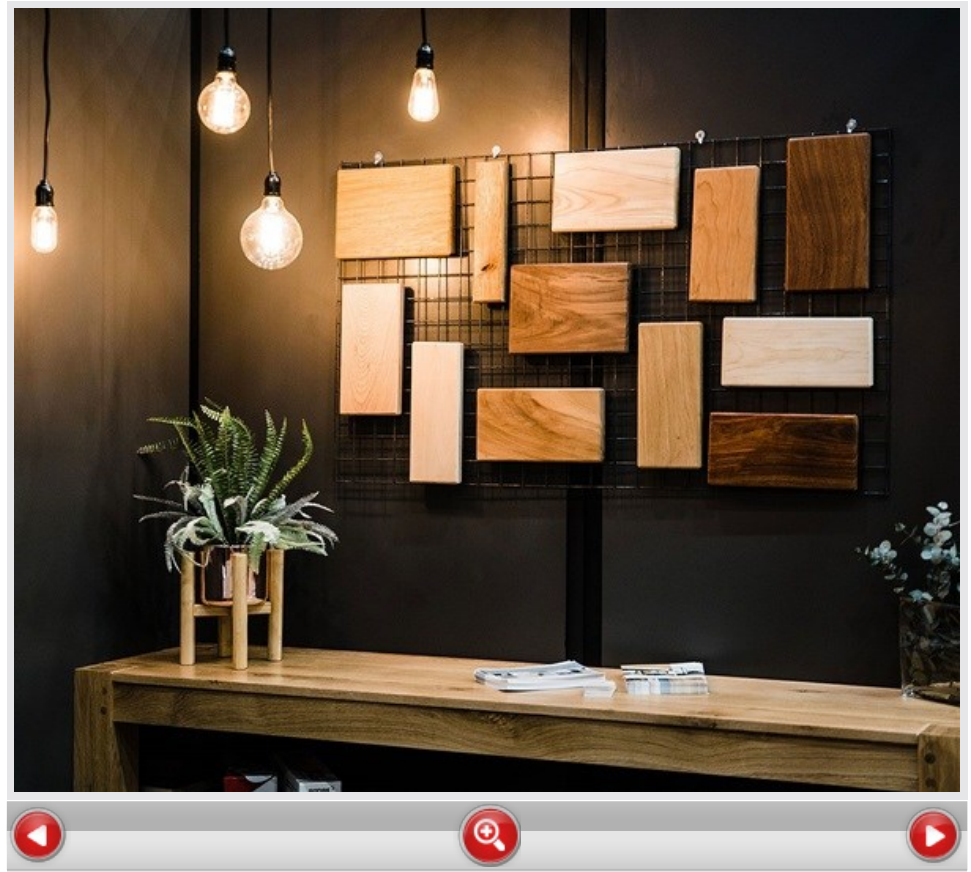

Today's home is a reflection of its people, gone is the need to look like the Joneses. Our homes are authentically us, stripped of pretence. Product transparency is also a growing trend; we shop with a higher conscience focusing on wellness and sustainability, wanting to know the person or story behind our purchase.

This year the Pretoria Homemakers Expo brings you the stories and the best products in home improvement. The expo is where you can come face-to-face with the craftspeople or knowledgeable experts who provide visitors with the best understanding of the product.

The show helps to expand dialogue between homeowners and suppliers. It offers unique ways for you to see, touch, feel and compare products and services.

The 2019 theme of Raw Comfort, embraces perfect imperfections, and through various talks and demonstrations we will show you how to get in touch with a more organic world.

Show features include:

Raw Workshop

Proudly brought to you by World of Decorative Concrete.

The Raw workshop will bring a wealth of interesting demonstrations where craftsmen show off the beginnings of their product of trade. Find yourself at the heart of the development of manufacturing lines of products that we dream and plan to have in our homes.

Some of the raw products that you will get to know better in this theatre involve the making of glass, wool and of course the ever popular medium of cement. Meet us in the Raw workshop where we will bring a refreshing showcase of how to work with concrete and how to use it in your décor.

Truly Artisan

Truly Artisan will once again not disappoint with the latest styles and buys for your home. Meet designers and find must-have décor products including textiles, crafts, ceramics, art and furniture.
